

January 6, 2010

Dear CASPA Colleagues,

Happy New Year! I hope you've taken time to enjoy the holidays with family and friends. I also hope you've had some time to renew yourself. The spring is fast approaching with our upcoming job fair and spring madness!

Boulder Valley School District will host our January CASPA meeting on Friday, January 15, 2010. I've attached the agenda and location directions. This month's featured presentation will pertain to Retention Strategies for Teachers of Color. We've also slotted 30 minutes for a roundtable discussion to share your district's strategies during times of budget constraints. I'm sure the day will be insightful for all of us.

I look forward to our time together on January 15, 2009. Please review the enclosed minutes from last month and January's agenda.

Regards,

Debbie McGee
